Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 16,17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Huff et al (2004/0230268).

Figure 1 shows an adapter that connects to a cardiac lead and to a cable via alligator clips. The external device 43 can be a system analyzer as taught in par.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-5,23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Huff et al.

The mechanical retention means of claim 1 is considered to be the friction fit described in par. 36. Further, to have inner and outer contacts for the adapter is considered to be obvious in that the same result is obtained as with the slots of Huff.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 6-15,18-22,24 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. Claim 25 is allowed.
